

ROLE DESCRIPTION

Position title: Workshop Facilitator

Location: Victoria

Work type: Casual

Availability: 2 days minimum

Start date: July, 2021

Are you comfortable talking about sex? Are you passionate about relevant, inclusive and interactive sex education? Are you a confident public speaker? Do you love working with diverse groups of young people?

Elephant Ed are looking for charismatic, energetic, and passionate Workshop Facilitators to join our growing team. If you answered yes to any of the above questions, Elephant Ed is the right place for you.

As a Workshop Facilitator, your role will include traveling to schools across Victoria to facilitate fun and engaging workshops on sexuality, relationships and growing up. Our workshops are typically delivered to small group sizes. Facilitators are expected to use their abilities to improvise and facilitate to a range of group dynamics.

This is an extremely unique opportunity to connect with young people across the state and spark generational change.

Elephant Ed is committed to fostering an inclusive and respectful workplace environment. The students we work with come from all walks of life, and so do we. We hire great people from a wide variety of backgrounds, not just because it is the right thing to do, but because it makes our organisation stronger. We encourage applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, people from culturally diverse backgrounds, LGBTQIA+ people and those with a disability.

THE ORGANISATION:

Since 2015, Elephant Ed has been transforming the way sex education is taught across Australia. We work with students, universities, teachers, parents and community groups to facilitate interactive, informative and inclusive sex education workshops.

Our evidence-based workshops have been tried and tested across all relevant age groups. Our comprehensive curriculum embraces all young people, regardless of their gender, sexuality or background. This is your chance to empower tens of thousands of young people to make informed, positive and safe decisions about sexuality, relationships and growing up.

At the end of the day, sex education is more than just condoms on bananas.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Facilitate interactive workshops through open discussion, engaging activities and stimulated learning
- Travel throughout Victoria to deliver workshops in schools, universities and community groups
- Partake in ongoing training and professional development

KEY SELECTION CRITERIA:

- 18+ years old (not at school)
- Current Australian drivers' license and daily access to a car
- Valid Working With Children Check (or willingness to obtain one)
- Comfortable public speaking and ability to facilitate to large groups of people
- Passion for working directly with young people and students
- Confident, energetic and charismatic
- Youthful and relatable
